Roview of the Baigon Rico Market-1867. (From Mesere, W. U. Hale & Co.'s Market Report). SAIGON, Sixt December, 1867. The season commences in December, but supplies

during that month are small, and the husiness dres not fairly begin until January, from which wouth the Exthe lay-change, quota-inno to Hice is sold by the picul of 18 by. Reglish gross weight bayned (in mots) and delivered alongside the recent. Payment is mude usually, one half in adonnes and the balance on delivery of the Rice. The crop of last season was the largestyetproduced and the exports show an increase of 1,050,124 Picale over last year. The bulk, as usual, was shipped to Okina, but flielow prices here, induced several shipments to Europe and Mauritius; the results of which are satisfactory. The babiness with these places, has, in a measure compensated for the very mantisfactory state of trule with China, which has been so discouraging, that Europeans have done but little, while Chinese have been great losers. Several versels have also lunded direct for Jacon. t fort- and one small cargo has just been cleared for Syd-4.
